[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO MARCH 25.

Washington News

CHICAGO, March 26.—A Washington special says that yesterday the House Committee on Commerce, voted to report with amendments, the Senate bill to protect the fur seals, after a stormy debate. There is a small chance of the bill passing both houses at the present session

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The National Executive Committee of colored men, last night, discussed a memorial to heads of departments, setting forth the claim of colored people to a portion of the Government patronage, on the ground of their services in the war and in the subsequent elections, and asking that position be given them. No action was taken.

It is now thought that the final adjournment will not occur before the middle of April.

Commissions for various parties, confirmed for office in the days of Johnson's administration, are still withheld. The subject is in the hands of the Attorney General.

A delegation of Texans, a portion in favor and a portion against the division of Texas, were before the Reconstruction Committee yesterday.

CHICAGO, March 28.—The Times' special thinks the public debt statement will show a reduction of about seven millions.

The iron-clads Seminole and Galena have been ordered to the West Indian station, as the Cuban question of independence is gradually developing.

The Republican's special says dispatches from the Consul General at Havana, report the situation unchanged. It is by no means certain how matters will terminate. Both parties profess confidence of success.

Admiral Hoff is ordered to make a thorough investigation of the capture of the American English brig Mary Pound, by the Spanish authorities, and report the facts immediately.

Banks had a long interview with the President yesterday in regard to Cuban affairs, the purport of which is not known.

The iron clad Juniata is ordered to the West Indies in addition to the Seminole and Galena.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs met to investigate Paraguayan affairs, including the conduct of ex-Minister Washburne and Rear Admiral Davis in regard to the imprisonment of Bliss and Masterman. Witnesses were summoned.

It is said in Republican circles that the Reconstruction Committee will report five for and seven against re assembling the original Georgia Legislature and imposing the oath of qualification and declaring the expulsion of the colored members void.

A telegram received by the Secretary of the Interior dated Salt Lake, March 19th, from Gens. Warren and Blockendorffer, special commissioners, says their report on the Central Pacific will require time, and that they think the Secretary should know that they who have seen both roads declare the Central Pacific as incomplete as the Union.

A dispatch just received says the track of the Union Pacific is laid 25 miles from Ogden, and the grading between there and Monument Point is completed except 6 miles. The Central have laid to 75 miles west of Monument Point, leaving a gap between the roads of 126 miles.

Death of Edward Bates.

CHICAGO, March 26.—Edward Bates, Attorney General under Lincoln, died in St. Louis yesterday.

Indian Troubles Brewing.

An Omaha special says there is great dissatisfaction among the Indians on the upper Missouri reservation, at the manner in which the treaties are being carried out. It is said that even Spotted-tail is complaining. An early outbreak is anticipated.

Fire in Boston.

BOSTON, March 28.—A fire on Commercial street last night, destroyed property worth $300,000.

Monument to Dean Richmond.

HARTFORD, Conn., March 27.—A firm in this city has received a contract to build a granite and marble mausoleum in memory of Dean Richmond.

West Indies.

HAVANA, March 28.—Advices from Port au Prince to March 18th say that Salnave is in a precarious condition, owing to the state of his finances. The navy has not been paid for three months. There is a murmuring feeling at the capital against Salnave. The blacks are jealous of the whites. Assassination is feared. Gold is at 270 premium.

Two men were shot in the streets here to-day, and six arrested for uttering seditious words.

E. R. Coddington, the American consular agent at Gitrara, has been brought here a prisoner.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

PARIS, March 26.—Several large public meetings were held here yesterday, and three persons arrested for seditious speeches.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The Herald's London special advices from Spain render it certain that Montpensier will be proclaimed King. He will arrive in Spain within a fortnight.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

SALEM, March 29.—On Saturday last a convict named Hibler, who had recently been sentenced to the Penitentiary for five years, became stubborn and feigned insanity. The Medical Examiner was called in. The convict would not let him come near. The Warden was then called when an altercation took place and the Warden shot the convict dead.

The new banking house of Ladd & Bush of this city, was formally opened to day.

We have had heavy rains for several days River in good boating stage.

From One Who Knows.—In the course of a recent speech in the House of Representatives, the Hon J P Newsham, of Louisiana, said

The fundamental, original cause of all the blood shed, murder, massacres, violence, fraud, and intimidation which have blackened the fame of the South, and which will forever blur the page of Louisiana history, may be attributed and traced to the following causes: Loyalty to the General Government; an unfaltering attachment to the Union of these States during the dark and doubtful days of the Republic. The fact of once having served in the Federal army has heretofore been sufficient reason, in the estimation of the people of my State, to incite riot and commit murder. The cause of all our trouble South has been in the hatred and bitter animosity of the people of Louisiana against anything like loyalty, against the policy of Congress, and against everything which was calculated to affect the perpetuity of the Union of these States. The holding and honest expression of Republican sentiments and principles has been and continues to be sufficient cause to murder the man who dares to express them. The war is because of opinion's sake. It is a war of the rebel against the loyalist. Combinations are perfected and wield their influence against every man who holds Republican sentiments, no matter what may be the color of the Republican's skin or complexion. The interdiction is hurled against the lawyer, the artisan, and the humble toiler of the soil. The cry is "drive them out!" "send them to their mud sill homes!" The classic soil of the South needs them not.

There are some folks and newspapers who might study what Mr. Newsham says with profit.

A GEM WHICH WILL UNTIE EVEN POLISHED STEEL.—A Turkish recipe for a cement used to fasten diamonds and other precious stones to metallic surfaces, and which is said to strongly unite even surfaces of polished steel, although exposed to moisture, is as follows:

Dissolve five or six bits of gum mastic, each of the size of a large pea, in as much spirits of wine as will suffice to render it liquid. In another vessel, dissolve in brandy as much isinglass, previously softened in water, as will make a two-ounce vial of strong glue, adding two small bits of gum ammoniac, which must be rubbed until dissolved. Then mix the whole with heart. Keep in a vial closely stopped. When it is to be used, set the vial in boiling water.

[illegible]
Postoffice [illegible]
Wednesday, [illegible]
Feb 7 1869

The die is cast—gone is the settled hue of dark plots unto Kentucky. The last vestige of conspiratorial liberty is swept away forever. Nothin but the name here of which to offer mock ery. The Senate goes it and concurs with the House, which it was so, and the reknit number of States ready to accept them. Now accursid Niggers with votes in Kentucky the same as white men, and the star of liberty is set forever! They may go so far as they will be in a majority of the disfranchise the brave men who served in the Confederate army.

It might hev bin expected. The intelligence affected the Corners pretty. We was in a settin in Bascom's as happy as we could be. A new barrel hed ben tapped. Deakin Program hed money, and I was not altogether unprovided, as a letter hed ben dropped into the postoffice that morning which contained a remittance of six dollars to a lottery concern in New York. Ez I believe lotteries to be swindles and demoralizin in their nature, I opened the missive and confiscated the contents. I will never be the means of leading young men to room thro the agency of lotteries—never.

It was a pleasant scene. The fire was a burning brightly, with reflectin on our respective noses, gave the room a more than usual brilliancy. Bascom was behint the bar, his elbows leanin onto it, waitin for the orders wich he knew would be made. Capt McPelter was a smokin his pipe peacefly, a watchin the clouds that arist, formin a sort of halo around his head; while Deakin Program and myself was just in the act uv takin suthin hot wich hed ben fixed for us. At this moment Pennibacker's boy rode up on Bascom's mule and hove a paper at me wich contained the fatal intelligence. I read it aloud. There was no innocent mirth that nite. Deakin Program's hand relaxed its holt onto the glass and it fell to the floor, the precious flooid wastin itself through the cracks, and the old saint fell from his chair in a swoon. I had more presence uv mind—I drank mine with one convulsive gulp, and then dropped the empty glass. The effect, so far ez manifesting greef was concerned, was the same ez tho I had dropped it, liker and all, and it was better for me. The glass was Bascom's—the sensashun in my bowels was produced by the liker was mine. That even constooshnel amendments can't take away from me.

It didn't take long to figer how this outrage, ef it is consummatid, will effect the Corners. There is in this peesful township sixty-three loyal white voters, uv wich number thirty-nine vindicated their manhood in the Confedrit servis, the others, bein too old, cepting Pollock, wich is from Illinoy and uv Ablishen proclivities. Garretstown is in this township, and countin them in ther is 244 adult male niggers, and ther wood hev ben a hundred more hed niggers all bin born bullet and rope proof. So long ez these niggers was in their normal condishen uv servitood, they were indispensible—sence they was crooelly wrested from us we hev made em almost ez yooseful to us by hevin the law into our hands. They hev ez a rool accumulated suthin, for their labor. We uv course, held the offices; Issaker Gavitt is assessor, and Deakin Program treasurer, and the niggers hev been made to pay all the taxes that hev bin paid. They coodent help themselves for the law hez terrors when wealded by strong and willin hands, and the hands uv our offishels are both strong and willin.

But for these niggers the township government wood be a mere nothing. Issaker dident dare to assess Bascom for fear he'd stop supplies onto him, nor wood Bascom hev any uv the white citizens taxed, for watever they shood pay in tax that went either into the county or Strait Treasury was so much lost to him. He was anxious to hev the niggers sweat, for uv the munny collected uv them he got a large per cent, either through the Collector or Treasurer, wich was clear gain, ez they don't patronize him anybow.

In various other ways we hed em. Pennibacker is Justis uv the Peece and hez bin for yeers, and he held the skales firmly. The niggers wood occasionally labor in plantin time or in harvest for the white citizens who owned land, and, filled with the idea that they wuz free citizens, they wood in the most insolent manner demand pay for their services. Uv course they wood be refoosed, where upon they wood bring soot before Pennibacker. The result uv their vencher it is onnecessary for me to stait.

"What bizness hez a nigger in this yer court?" wood the indignant embodiment uv the majesty uv the law thunder forth with a face ez black ez a cloud. And dismissin the soot he wood promptly ishoo an execooshun agin em for costs. Ten or twenty niggers who sood white men wuz sold out bob and sinker for costs in sich soots, and when the costs didn't take all they hed, the Justis wood fine em for contempt uv court for comin before him at all. The niggers after a few experiments declined to seek justis at that fountain head of the article.

Then again in cases uv assault and battery and in inquests on ded boddies uv niggers, it was necessary to hev Pennibacker Justis. Niggers wich wuz found dead hangin to trees, and with bullet holes into em wuz regierly found guilty uv dyin by visitation uv Providence. Ez they hedn't votes uv course none uv the offishels wuz afraid uv em. I heard one uv em, wunst, who hed bin fined twenty dollars for striking Issaker Gavitt, which hed in a playful mood chased his daughter through the Corners, grootnly exclaim that he wisht he'd bin born in Ireland instead uv Ameriky.

But now how will it be with us? They will vote and they will hev a majority. Pollock will be made justis of the peace, Joe Bigler assessor, and a nigger constable. What security hev we? Niggers will soo us and get judgments, and the nigger constables will serve execooshens onto us. Why, Deekin Program owes enuff to niggers to swamp every aker he holds, and Bascom would be sweat severely. And when we punish one of their brods for insolence to us, and then to be arrested by a nigger, and taken before a justis elected by niggers, and be fined or perchance imprisoned. It's too much. When this happens, will the Corners, I ask, be a place for gentlemen uv pride and culchur? Nay. And to this it must come.

I see one weak spot in the amendment, viz. It provides that no State shel disfranchise any body becoz of race or color, but don't say that people can't be disfranchised for other causes, and I eagerly seezed hold uv that ez a shipwrecked mariner does to a plank.

"What good will that do us?" groaned the Deekin.

"Why we kin disfranchise em on the score uv ignorance!" remarkt I. "Nine niggers can't read."

"No more kin I," shouted Issaker Gavitt, mournfully; "I'll be out with em."

And upon givin the matter mature reflection I saw that there wuz no bottom to that hope. By makin readin a test the superior class at the Corners would be more hurt than the inferior class.

Thank Heaven ten States kin block this game and save us this torment. Oh that they may do it! Oh, that this last bitter draft may be spared us. May the Dimocrisy uv the North put forth their strength and save us this last degredation.

Rise, Progress and Power of the Press.

[From the Paris Continental Gazette.]

The spirit of the press pervades the universe—its voice conveys with celerity to every corner of the globe, not only a mere chronicle of passing events, but a mine of scientific, political and useful knowledge.

The Roman Acta Diurna were issued nearly seven hundred years before the advent of our Saviour. The earliest newspaper of modern times was the Gazzetta which appeared in Venice about the year 1536. This paper derived its name from the price—a small coin. Block printing was practised by the Chinese several centuries prior to the Christian era. Augsburg, Basle, Florence, Rome, Mentz, Haarlem, and Strasbourg have each claimed the honor of single type printing; but the names of the last three towns only are entitled to attention. The honor of the invention is awarded by Adrian Junius to Laurenzes. John Koster, of Haarlem, printed, about 1438, with blocks a book of images and letters, "Speculum Humanæ Salvationis," and compounded an ink more viscous and tenacious than common ink, which blotted. A peculiarity about this book was that, the leaves being printed on one side only, were afterward pasted together. Six years later John Guttenberg invented cut-metal types, and commenced printing the earliest edition of the Bible, which was completed in 1460. The first metal types in matrices were cast by Peter Schoeffer, in the year 1542, and therefore he was the inventor of complete printing. During the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries the word "imprimatur" was much used on the title pages of books. There were licensers of the press, supposed to be of such pure taste and comprehensive wisdom, that, without their "imprimatur" it was not lawful to print a book. Even in those days, the great influence which printing would exercise for good or evil was felt by the existing governments of England. The liberty of the press was sorely restrained and the number of printers limited, by the Star Chamber, in the reign of Charles I. Disorders in printing were redressed by Parliament in 1643 and 1649, and by Charles II. in 1662. The censorship of the press was abandoned during the reign of William III.; a few years later presses were licensed, and the printer's name required to be placed on both the first and last pages of all books. In France the earliest newspaper was the Gazette de France, which appeared in 1631, edited by a physician named Renaud, and is still in existence. Louis XIII. wrote one article for the paper. It has been stated that the first newspaper published in England was the English Mercury; copies are still in existence, professing to have been published in 1588, under the authority of Queen Elizabeth, but they have been proved to be forgeries, executed about 1766. The full title is: "The English Mercurie, published by authoritie, for the prevention of false reports, imprinted by Christopho. Barker, Her Highness' printer, No. 50." The [illegible] Armada is described as, "A journal of what [illegible] since the 21st of this month between Her Majesty's fleet and that of Spayne, transmitted by the Lord Highe Admiral to the L[illegible] of Counsell." In the reign of James I. the London Weekly Coorant was published, 1622. During the civil war, 1643, several other publications appeared, but are not entitled to the name of newspapers. The first English newspaper with a claim to that title was the Public Intelligencer, which was published by Sir Roger L'Estrange, in 1663. This journal ceased on the appearance of the London Gazette, which

Mr. Wilkins on Velocipedes.

[From the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.]

"But Wilkins, I——"

"I tell you, Mrs. Wilkins, I'm not going to have it, you may as well make up your mind to that at once. No woman shall ever go gadding around this community on a velocipede while she's a wife of mine if I can help it, so you can just take that old pair of wheels you brought home and gladden the heart of some kindling wood man with them, for ride them you don't; if you do I'm a Dutchman; there!"

"Mr. Wilkins, you know I——"

"No I don't know anything of the kind so you think I'm going to let such a looking coon as you dress up in Bloomers and mount a high hat and go around trying to show off that figure——"

"Mr. Wilkins!"

"Go straggling around the thoroughfares of this town, looking like an old beer-cask dropped upon two legs, and showing those ankles which are so thick that you couldn't get one of them through the equator!"

"Wilkins, I'll scratch——"

"Well I should think not. And, besides, I don't know whereabouts, on this terrestrial globe you expect to find any wheels strong enough to bear you. You'd smash a pair of cast-iron car-wheels into smithereens, the minute you sat down on them, you would. The best thing you can do is to walk, and on the ground, too, where the crust of the earth isn't thin; or else sit in front of a fire and melt down your avoirdupois."

"Mr. Wilkins you're perfectly scandalous."

"But I'm not going to put up with it. I don't intend to have you flopping around town on a velocipede, and very likely falling off and breaking your bones, and have a lot of doctors coming to my house and making post mortem examinations, and sawing you up, and discovering things with hard Latin names in your lungs and your liver, and your physique generally. Well, I should think not! It's bad enough to have to submit to you now, without having your gore spilt around over the carpet, and a parcel of sawedbones blaspheming at your anatomy. I——"

"Wilkins, ain't you ashamed to talk so?

"I want you to understand that if you ride that velocipede I will sue for a divorce. I don't believe in a woman exercising her muscles on any such contrivance. You'd a good deal better get a scrubbing-brush and go down and tackle the front door steps with some sand and a chunk of soap. That's the kind of exercise you want, in my opinion."

"Mr. Wilkins, if you'll only listen——"

"Or else practice carrying a coal-scuttle up and down stairs every five minutes all day. But as for the mother of a family, and a flabby old girl of your years undertaking to ride a velocipede, why, it's simply ridiculous."

"Mr. Wilkins, I——"

"The next thing I know, I suppose you will be parading yourself in the papers as 'Madame Wilkins, the Champion Velocipedest,' and running mile heats on the Nicolson pavement for hundred-dollar purses, best two out of three. A beautiful spectacle won't it be? And I suppose you will want me to bet on you and back you up; but not one cent of my cash do you get. Not a single, solitary red. Do, you suppose I am going to throw away my hard-earned money on such a fanatic as you? Well, I should think not. I'm not put up a dollar on you if I was worth untold billions. I'm not proud of you; I want you to distinctly understand that."

"Mr. Wilkins, you'll make me——"

"And a pretty sight you are setting in your office, I must say, Holfernes Montgomery, a full grown pride out of two flour barrels, and Cæsar and Cæsaphelus Alexander tried to ride it, it broke down and bit Mary Jane on the leg and lamed her for life, while Holfernes Montgomery fell over the cat, which yowled and spitted around and scratched Holfernes Montgomery over the front face, so that his beauty is destroyed forever, and he looks more like you than ever. I say it is perfectly outrageous, and I'm not going to stand it."

"Mr. Wilkins! O, if you'll listen I'll tell you something——"

"Oh! I don't want to hear it. We'll discontinue the conversation. I'm tired of hearing you cackle."

"Well, the velocipede came home——"

"Never mind now. I want to go to sleep. Just give your tongue a chance to rest, will you?"

"Was for you. I heard you say you wanted one, so I bought it out of the market money I saved. But you treat me like a brute, that I——I——"

"For me, did you say Sarah? Well, then never mind now. Don't cry, Sarah, I say. Never mind; I won't do it again Sarah! Sarah! Don't cry. Sa—rah! Oh, well, cry then, cry; who cares? You're the most aggravating woman that ever lived. I'll get on that velocipede to-morrow morning and abandon you as sure as my name is Wilkins. If I don't bang me!"

MILITARY CREED.—The following creed was adopted by the officers of the American Army at Verplank's Point, in 1882:

We believe that there is a Great First Cause, by whose almighty fiat we are formed.

We believe our business here is to obey the orders of our superiors.

We believe that every soldier who does his duty will be happy here, and that every such one who dies in battle will be happy hereafter.

We believe that General Washington is the only fit man in the world to head the American Army.

We believe that Gen. Nathaniel Greene was born a General.

We believe that Baron Steuben has made us soldiers, and that he is capable of forming the whole world into a solid column and deploying it from the center.

We believe in his "blue book."

We believe in General Knox and his artillery.

We believe in our bayonets. Amen.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness.

E. B. MOORE, NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE, G. R. WARD,

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF Oregon for the county of Multnomah.—Henry L. Pittock, Plaintiff, vs. James P. O. Lownsdale, Administrator, James P. O. Lownsdale, Guardian of Millard O. Lownsdale, Millard O. Lownsdale, Ruth A. Lownsdale, John A. Blanchard her Guardian, Ida Squires, Wm. E. Cooper her Guardian, Emma S. Lamb and John R. Lamb her husband, Mary K. Cooper and Wm. K. Cooper her husband, James P. O. Lownsdale and Hannah and Hiram Smith, Defendants.—Summons in equity to quiet title to Block 215, City of Portland, Oregon.—To Ida Squires, one of the Defendants above named: Whereas the plaintiff above named has filed in the Court above named a complaint, of which you are hereby notified, and claims title to that parcel of land known as Block No. 215 in the City of Portland, Oregon, to which, it is said, you and other defendants set up some claim adverse to plaintiff, and prays that said adverse claim be determined and that you be excluded from any lien, interest or estate in said land, and whereas a summons was duly issued and you were required to answer said complaint in ten days if served in said county or within twenty days if served out of said county, and you were not served within said State, but it was shown that you were a non-resident of the State of Oregon, and an order of publication was made by said Court, to the end that you might be notified of the pendency of this suit: Now, therefore, in the name of the State of Oregon, you, the said Ida Squires, are hereby notified of the pendency of the above entitled suit and are required to appear in the Court above entitled at the City of Portland, on the first day of the next term thereof, to be held on the second (2d) Monday of June, 1869, and answer said complaint, or in default thereof, the said complaint will be taken as confessed and the plaintiff will take judgment against you, and a decree according to the prayer of said complaint as above set out, as well as for general relief.

LOGAN, SHATTUCK & KELLIH,
Portland, Ogn., Feb. 22, 1869. Plaintiff's Att'ys.

OF THE

Weekly Oregonian.

FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to every thing of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,

AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

are published as full as in the California journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.

Going Home.

With curls in the sunny air tossing,
With light in the merry blue eyes,
With laughter so clearly outringing,
A laugh of delight and surprise,
All friendly assistance disdaining,
And trusting no strength but his own,
The past fears and trials forgotten,
The baby is "going alone"

What woful mishaps have preceded
This day of rejoicing and pride!
How often the help that he needed
Has carelessly gone from his side!
He has fallen while reaching for sunbeams,
Which just as he grasped them have flown,
And the tears of vexation have followed,
But now he is "going alone."

And all through his life he will study
This lesson again and again;
He will carelessly lean upon shadows,
He will fall and weep over the pain
The hand whose fond clasp was the surest,
Will coldly withdraw from his own,
The truest eyes will be clouded,
And he will be walking alone.

He will learn what a stern world we live in,
And he may grow cold like the rest;
And just keep a warm sunny welcome,
For those who seem truest and best;
Yet chastened and taught by past sorrow,
And stronger and manlier grown,
Not trusting his all to their keeping,
He will learn to walk bravely alone.

And yet not alone, for our Father,
The faltering footsteps will guide,
Through all the dark mazes of earth-life,
And "over the river's" deep tide.
Oh! He is a Helper unfailing,
A strength we can perfectly trust,
When all human aid unavailing
"The dust shall return unto dust."

Democracy Reeling.

[From the St. Louis Democrat.]

A vigilance committee in New York—what does it mean? It means that Democratic government has borne its usual fruit. It means that thieves, murderers and scoundrels have so taken possession of the city that decent citizens are compelled to arm and organize for self protection.

New York city forcibly illustrates every conceivable phase of Democratic misrule, corruption and scoundrelism. Sixty thousand majority for Seymour finds a natural and appropriate accompaniment in sixty murders a week, and forty millions a year of taxes. New York elects judges, and the Democratic majority choose judges who will suit Democrats. New York elects sheriffs, and the majority select men who suit Democrats. The police is a powerful, well-disciplined and non-partizan body—but it can only arrest. Scoundrels, when brought before New York judges, too often find "friends at court." Organized bands of rascals spring up, who threaten the life of any officer or judge or juryman who tries to bring punishment upon any of their number. An organized body rescued a murderer from a policeman not long ago, at a jury-mandate to mercy the murderer, a policeman, and crime has increased with frightful rapidity. Within a few weeks, the number of murders and daring robberies has become large beyond all precedent. Shots are fired from air-guns all about the city; men are killed in their stores, in their rooms at hotels, in crowded streets at midday; banks are smashed open in the day time. All manner of crime thrives strangely.

Not long ago a report was noted and published the fact that the trade in revolvers had suddenly and enormously increased. Citizens generally began carrying [illegible] at the fair cy and boldness of murderers were [illegible] for self-[illegible] was [illegible] report of [illegible] in one of the wards. Then it [illegible] rations had been [illegible] we hear that the [illegible] held a general [illegible] and a central [illegible] into the [illegible] and that [illegible] to be [illegible] have been [illegible] vance upon [illegible] have not met a fact.

[illegible] any [illegible] awful organization for the [illegible] of crime. If the most [illegible] committee had been [illegible] and active in working [illegible] it would have been [illegible] But when reform was proposed [illegible] as it has [illegible] every year by the Tribune—[illegible] would [illegible] some [illegible] or threats, and the [illegible] were too busy to do any [illegible]. Reform takes time and work. If the [illegible] of New York had united, for [illegible] is working in earnest for the [illegible] of [illegible] judges, that could have been [illegible]. But nobody had time, and [illegible] is that everybody has to do [illegible].

Vigilance committees and such illegal [illegible] only prevent the [illegible] of the true remedy. If New York [illegible] by a long [illegible] had no other reason [illegible] they might perhaps forget partizanship long enough to reform the city government. Such a reform, once [illegible], would last for some years at least. But the cowardice, ignorance of a [illegible] will [illegible] a fact of the [illegible] out of town, and frighten the rest into [illegible]. The government will go on, as [illegible] as ever. The committees will be [illegible] down after a little, and then the [illegible] will come back more hungry than [illegible].

The failure of self government in large cities is a [illegible] fact. It can no longer be denied that the mass of those who congregate in cities are either too busy, too ignorant, or too vicious to secure the faithful enforcement of laws by the ordinary methods of government. Of good citizens, nearly all are too busy; how many of them attend primary meetings, for example? And how many well-meaning citizens are there who know the character of men in a city well enough never to vote for a weak, incompetent, or worthless officer? When to these classes is added the great body of those who want license and are impatient of law, we have a majority in every city. The result is misgovernment, transfer of power to appointed boards, and occasional volcanic outbreaks in the "vigilance" form.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE,	NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE,	G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY,	JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER,	ROB'T RAMSEY,

And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

OF THE

Weekly Oregonian.

FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to everything of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,

AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS

THE EAST AND EUROPE

are published as full as in the California journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

Commercial Reports

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware, and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of Journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence, making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain increased circulation and support.

TERMS:

One Year	$3 00.
Six Months	2 00.
Three Months	1 00.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN has been a favorite paper for mailing to friends in the East. It will be mailed from the office at subscription rates.

Subscribers will find on each paper, with their name the date on which their subscriptions expire, as entered on our books. In renewing, the name of subscriber and post office should be distinctly written.

All papers are discontinued at the end of the time for which they have been paid, the date of which is always printed with the name each week.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW PRESCRIPTIONS!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or the virus absorbed into the system! Look at their wasted and disfigured faces and their broken constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of life, or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid sin thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let guardians, friends, attend to those who are [illegible] any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases with mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing lies in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of [illegible] from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an almost [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by [illegible] ical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark [illegible] the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, [illegible] the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, [illegible] way in company, a disinclination to shun society, loss of [illegible] flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, [illegible] nervousness, insomnia and frequently [illegible] not obtained, should apply immediately [illegible] by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which [illegible] effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove [illegible] to him that he was cured of this complaint by other of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are under any of these fearful maladies, should not [illegible] sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give a patient a written instrument, binding himself to perform a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating their case, length of time the disease has continued, and such medicines promptly forwarded, free from curiosity, to any part of the country, with full directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in a letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unfortunate. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and have been lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinkers, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid detection is to make enquiry—it will cost you NAUGHT, and may save you many regrets: for, as seven out of physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive public by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended [illegible] letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, San Francisco Post Office Box [illegible]

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 263 ON THE LETTER.

TACOMA.—A gentleman lately from the above named place has kindly furnished us, says the Commercial, with the following items. Times are very lively at Tacoma—money in abundance. A great many are constantly going there; young and laboring men; the roads are lined and the stages crowded. Improvements are progressing as rapidly as circumstances will allow. One of the principal obstacles in the way of buildings, is, and has been, the great scarcity of timber, which can hardly be procured at any price. A small saw mill has been in operation all winter near the town, but it has not been able to satisfy the ever increasing demand, by far. Considerable quantities of lumber have been shipped from up the Sound; in fact, from a distance of thirty miles. A large mill will soon be in operation, adjoining the town. The A. M. has gone to San Francisco to purchase the ——— ——. It will be, when finished, the largest and most ——— on the Sound. Town lots are selling rapidly, and ——— ranging fair prices. Considerable rivalry exists between this place and Steilacoom, distant about 20 miles. It was thought by many for a long time that the sound on which Tacoma stands, was too deep for ——— at anchorage, but a ——— of a vessel now lying at Seattle, recently came over and established soundings, with the most satisfactory results. The ——— depth found anywhere was ——— one mile out in the bay, and that was only twenty ———. A gentleman is now in this city for the purpose of procuring ——— to ——— for propelling a steamer to ply between Tacoma and various other ports along the ———. A line of steamers has been established between ——— and that place, making trips semi weekly.

———JUBILEE.—The following note and telegram ——— us on Saturday, but was unintentionally ——— in yesterday morning's issue:

The fifteenth anniversary of the existence of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be observed on the 4th of April throughout the entire ———tion. The following dispatch, having reference to ——— collection to be taken up on that day for the ——— of the new Mission House in New York, came ——— late for this week's issue of the Advocate. By publishing in the OREGONIAN for the information of those in——— you will confer a favor. I. DILLON.

——— NEW YORK, March 26, 1869.

To Pacific Christian Advocate:—The magnificent building now being ——— on the corner of Broadway and ——— streets, New York, is purchased for the "Book ——— and M——— E——— of the M——— E——— Episcopal ——— of the new Mission House, you now have a noble object before you for your jubilee offerings.

J. F. DURBIN,
200 Mulberry street, New York.

THE KILLING OF HIBLER AT THE PENITENTIARY.—We ——— just down from Salem that the ——— occurred in this wise: Hibler ——— decided to be, and wanted a doctor ——— The attending physician was sent ——— proceeded to Hibler's cell. Upon ——— door, however, he was confronted by Hibler ——— him not to come in, and threatened with a ——— that if he did come in, he (Hibler) would ——— top of his head off. The physician retired and ——— guard. The latter was met in the same manner by Hibler at the cell door, but thinking that Hibler was only "blowing," he went into the cell, when Hibler ——— a chair and made at him. The guard drew a ——— and as Hibler still did not desist, he fired, the ball ——— effect. Hibler had before, while in confinement, ——— insanity and it is presumable that he was ——— the same dodge.

REAL ESTATE BUYERS.—We learn that certain parties ——— were at East Portland on Saturday, negotiating ——— of real ——— Mr. Stephens, we are ——— a tract not far from the bridge, at the rate of ——— and ten dollars per acre, and Mr. Stephens ——— a much higher price per acre for all his land ——— that tract lying just about his house, on the bank ——— We did not learn the names of the buyers, ——— that they are investing in view of the expected ——— of the railroad, and the consequent rise ——— of the lands. The matter has created some sensation ——— East Portland, and it is probable that figures ——— will grow now faster than before.

———.—The great ——— local drama of ——— was played again last evening to ——— and with unabated spirit. The piece ——— to ——— none of its interest and to be no less ——— now on account of its ——— tition; for ——— at last nights had seen it at every ——— and they will ——— the merit of the play ——— ——— ing incidents with as close attention ——— as loudly as those who were present ——— time. There are in it some scenes that ——— ——— as often as they are seen. ——— be performed again to-night for the last ———.

———.—L. Henderson arrived down ——— last evening, from whom we learn ——— with this paper that during 1868, ——— put up and sold ten thousand sugar cured hams, most ——— which went into the California market, and were ——— 20 cts. per pound a figure far above any other ——— put up on this coast. The only hams in the California ——— which bring a higher price than "Cross' ——— are the "Westhalias." This is a fact desirable to Oregon as to Mr. Cross.

HOGS TO SHEEPS.—We have seen an account of an ——— who cut his throat, but it healed ——— operation gave him a tenor voice which ——— Some of our public ——— might ——— with perfect safety to their voices ——— of improvement. Nothing could be ——— Ante, in the trial. Out of consideration to ——— we heartily recommend the experiment.

———KNOW OF OREGON.—A gentleman who returned from a visit to Michigan, relates that the ——— he found while in that State, had ——— on Prairie grass. And he says that this ——— well how the people at the East, generally, ——— Oregon. They seem to know a great ——— but in relation to Oregon, they are ———.

———.—We learn from a gentleman who has ——— considerably through the Wallamet ——— that buyers of cattle have been through Yamhill, ——— and other counties, this Spring, and have ——— all the cattle to be had. In such neighborhoods, money seems to be plenty and ——— prosperous.

———.—The Walla ——— river is now higher at this ——— been for some weeks, and is rising rapidly. ——— Salem paper says the water rose at that place ——— day, one foot. The river is now at first rate ——— boats will find no difficulty in going to ——— City, or wherever else they ——— high water.

A NEW TOWN.—A Salem paper says that a new town ——— on the ——— Prairie near the present village of Wa——— shortly be surveyed by the railroad company. ——— will be partly owned by the company, and ——— by the original land owner. The principal depot ——— will be located at this future burg.

———.—Yesterday morning, a couple ——— each a family who came from Brownsville, Or., were taken up the river by the steamer ——— They were bound for Eastern Oregon. ——— is getting too thickly settled for them, and ——— going out to get larger breathing room.

———.—News from Umatilla represents ——— river has risen within the last two ——— eight inches, and still rising slowly. The ——— is expected at Celilo to-day, and navigation ——— it is thought, will be regularly resumed ———.

A BAD DAY.—It will scarcely be necessary to intimate ——— was a bad day for the item-gatherer—the ——— of the local column will sufficiently attest that fact. ——— nevertheless true that the wetter the day, ——— the dryer it is for items.

GOING TO MR. HYDE.—The bark Milnethon was towed down the river, yesterday, to St. Helens, ——— to load with lumber for the Southern coast ——— San Diego or San Pedro.

THE LAST NIGHT.—"Under the Gaslight" will be performed again to-night, at Oro Fino Theater, for the last time. Every theatre-goer who has not seen it, should go ——— to-night.

———.—Mr. D. W. Wakefield, late of ——— Wakefield, has been appointed Deputy Postmaster at this city. He is a gentleman well qualified for the place.

THE NATIONAL BANK.—The Unionist of Sunday said the new bank of Messrs. Ladd & Bush would be opened for ——— on Monday the 29th.

THE W.—The steamer Ann lately belonging to the ——— Steam Navigation Co. is said to be tied up along side the ——— banks of the Long Tom.

———.—The remains of Chas. Nealy, who was killed ——— morning at the Liva Saloon, were interred ——— afternoon in the Lone Fir Cemetery.

———.—Mr. M. V. Brown, the genial junior in the ——— called upon us yesterday. He is out in search of "recuperation."

TO HAVE AN EXAMINATION.—Jack Budbard, who shot and killed Nealy, Sunday morning, will have an examination to-morrow.

———.—Many of the street crossings were flooded ——— as usual when it rains hard. There are several ——— drains that sadly need reconstructing.

FOR AN IRRITATED THROAT, Cough or Cold, "Brown's ——— Troches" are offered with the fullest confidence ——— They have been thoroughly tested, and ——— the good reputation they have acquired. As ——— be sure to obtain the genuine.

———.—Mr. Fitzgerald has opened a Night ——— in the schoolhouse (up stairs) near the Catholic ——— For Terms &c. the Teacher.

Religious Intelligence.

The Seventh day Baptists have 75 churches in the United States.

The American Bible Society has issued during the past year, 1,200,000 copies of the Bible.

The First Congregational Church in Chicago, Rev. E. P. Goodwin pastor, has 600 members.

Within the past three years, more than 1,000 copies of the Gospels and Epistle to the Hebrews in the Hebrew language have been distributed among the Jews of Poland.

It is stated that the number of persons who during the last year have left the Church of England for the Church of Rome, is between 2,100 and 2,200. Among these are two peers, nineteen English clergymen, and seven or eight University graduates.

There are sixty one churches in Washington City: thirteen Methodist Episcopal, ten Episcopal, ten Presbyterian, seven Baptist, seven Roman Catholic, five Lutheran, three Methodist Protestants, two Friends, one Congregationalist, one Unitarian, one Universalist, one New Jerusalem and one Hebrew.

Dr. Judson baptized the first Burman convert in 1813, and since that time more than 10,000 converts have been baptized. Burmans, Karens and Shans making an average of about two every day. Of these, 20,000 are now living, and but a very small portion of the Karen population has been even visited or their territory explored.

The American Methodists have been doing what they can to spread their form of Christianity in Germany and the Scandinavian countries. But in this work the Baptists have far exceeded them. In Germany and Switzerland the Methodists have 5,925 members while the Baptists have 13,000. In Denmark, Norway and Sweden the Methodists have 789 members, while the remarkably flourishing Baptist Mission has 9,139 members and 216 churches. All but one of the 199 churches in Norway and Sweden have been founded during the last fifteen years.

Useful Hints

Olive Logan, in her piquant, sententious style, throws out some useful hints which every girl who has to "paddle her own canoe," should commit to memory:

Let all girls—actresses, type setters, seamstresses, hoop-skirt makers, sculptors, painters, or what you will, look upon the trade they are learning as the occupation of their lives, which they will always pursue, not only to support themselves but to support or partly support their children, if they marry, and, perhaps, in sickness or other necessity, their husbands.

But how is a woman to attend to her household duties if she has an occupation outside of her own home?

"She must hire all her work done. If she have a large family it will take two or three servants to attend properly to the household. Such a wasteful expense!"

If I had not heard people talk in this way I should hardly believe it possible for human nature to be so absurd.

Do you know any man of your acquaintance any successful business man, or any skilled workman who would stay at home to save hiring a servant for home work.

I have tried that kind of saving myself on several occasions, when I have had what I call the "old Ben Franklin" on me. I have sat at home in a corner for three days mending an old dress, when, if I had devoted those three days to my legitimate business I could have earned enough to buy a new dress, given the job of making it to a competent dressmaker, and the old dress to some poor woman, more needy than myself.

And the baby!

Oh, yes, the baby, to be sure.

If there is one occupation which is more than another mere waste of time, I think it is for an active, labor-competent woman to sit from morning till night with a limpbacked baby on her knees, devoting her whole energies unsuccessfully to the business of putting it to sleep.

Now, girls, be men! Learn your business thoroughly.

Let no employer have it in his power to say your work is slovenly, and that you're only working along until you can catch a man—that one man can work faster and better than three women.

If he can, of course he deserves three times your wages, but there is no good reason why you should not be as clever as he, if you will only try.

One E. H. Cummings writes to a Chicago paper in favor of the immediate transfer of the National capital to that enterprising and modest town. He says "It is conceded by all that Chicago is to-day, and must ever remain, the political center of the United States; and if so, why not have the capital here?"

Welch, editor of the Oskaloosa (Iowa) Conservator, started that paper in 1850, on a capital of fifteen cents: walked 2,000 miles soliciting subscribers. Though a Democrat he repudiated the nomination of Frank Blair. His untiring energy has made him successful in the business.

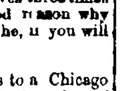
TEETH EXTRACTED
By Dr. Richardson's Apparatus, Lately Improved by Dr. Koehler, with Ether Spray.



WILLIAM KOEHLER,
DENTIST.
OFFICE—Southwest corner Front and Yamhill streets, opposite E. J. Northrup & Co's Hardware Store.
I am now making, amongst other numerous styles of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, the improved Vulcanite Plates of Dr. G. W. Cool's Patent, patented Dec. 3d, 1867, the improvement of which consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold. It not only makes the plate double as strong but coanlier than the common Vulcanite Plate. It also can by it be made considerably thinner and lighter, whereas the price is but little above that for common Plates. Call and see specimens.
N. B.—Dentists wishing to secure the office right for Dr. G. W. Cool's Improved Vulcanite Plates, can have it made out to them by applying to the office.
N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First-Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 30, 1869.

Approaching Completion.

The work of grading on the Pacific Railroad is finished, or nearly so, and a space of little more than one hundred miles is all that remains to be covered with rails. By the first of May, and perhaps some days earlier, the whole line will be finished and cars will run from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Its completion, observes the Sacramento Record, has been anxiously looked for by thousands, and more particularly by the residents of the Pacific slope. The Central line, commencing at Sacramento, which is 56 feet above tide water, climbs the steep and rugged Sierras, till it reaches the Summit, at an altitude of 7042 feet, where a tunnel 1,650 feet long, leads to their eastern slope, down which the track follows till it reaches White Plains, 3,231 feet above tide-water. Again it ascends till it reaches Pequod Pass, on Toano divide at an altitude of 6,180 feet, and again descends to the point where it is to connect with the Union Pacific at Monument Point, 651 miles from Sacramento, and 4,290 fert above the level of the sea. Then the Union Pacific line commences, and keeps ascending till it reaches Evans' Pass, at an elevation of 8,242 feet, then descends to Omaha, which is 967 feet above tide water, then onward by easy grades to Chicago, and afterwards to New York, making the total length from ocean to ocean, including a Western Pacific, which will shortly be completed, of 3,305 miles. The elevations on the Central line are not as high nor of so great an extent as on the Union line. Snow, so as to seriously blockade a railroad, except during extraordinary storms, in the altitude where the line is located, seldom occurs at an altitude below 5,000 feet. The Central road has 160 miles of road more than 5,000 feet above the sea, and only ten miles higher than 6,500, while the Union line has 500 miles 5,000 feet high and more than 200 miles over 6,500 feet high. The Central road, while its experience has shown the necessity, is protected by snow sheds. They have a line of such sheds 39 miles long, and more than 40,000,000 feet of lumber was used in their construction. It is hardly possible to protect the Union line in such a manner, unless about 400 miles of like sheds be erected. But railroads can and will be built across the continent by routes not at all subject to obstruction by snow.

The Next Ruler of Spain.

It is now announced that the Duke de Montpensier will be chosen King of Spain. This nobleman is the third son of Louis Philippe, and is now nearly forty-five years of age. In early life he served in the French army with much credit, and gained a high military rank. After the revolution of 1848 Montpensier left France with the rest of his family to England, and has since chiefly resided in that country and in Spain. He married in 1846 a sister of Isabella, who was lately expelled from the Spanish throne. He has been educated in advance, and will be viewed by residents in a free country, and it is not improbable that he will make a good ruler. By the new Constitution of Spain it seems to be provided that the King shall be elected every eight years. This is unfortunate for any one who may be called to the throne. Either the King will make the term longer, or the people will make it shorter; and in either event there will be new quarrels and commotions. Whether an Orleanist, who is wedded to a Bourbon, can conciliate the opposing royalists of Spain without giving offence to the progressive reformers, is a difficult question to answer.

The Debt Statement.

Why is it that we have as yet no statement of the public debt, on the 1st of March? We have been waiting anxiously to hear how much it was reduced in February. Can it be possible that the debt is still swelling? Does this account for the withholding of the statement?—Herald.

We shall take pleasure in furnishing our neighbor with the information he calls for. The public debt statement for March was not telegraphed here, but it is given in Eastern journals received by overland mail. The reduction during the month of February was $10,772,764. On the first of that month the amount of the debt was $2,556,205,658. On the first of March it was $2,545,336,904. The telegraphic dispatches published to-day indicate a further reduction during the month of March of seven millions. The Herald will see, therefore, that the debt is not "still swelling." That paper may dismiss its apprehensions on the subject; though we doubt not it would be glad to chronicle an increase of the debt each month, instead of a reduction.

We find that the statement of the debt for March 1st, 1869, shows an increase over the statement for March 1st, 1868, of about $25,000,000. But bonds have been issued to the Pacific Railroad Companies to more than that amount, and these bonds are to be regarded simply in the light of a loan. The increase of the debt has therefore been not actual, but nominal merely. In spite of all disadvantages it would have shown a reduction, had it not been for the policy of the late Secretary of the Treasury in converting the non-interest bearing and the currency interest debt into gold securities. The whole scope of McCulloch's policy was to make the debt seem as large as possible.

Lost to Hope.

"The Decay of Public Virtue." "The Degeneracy of the Times." "Impending Ruin of the Republic." Such are the themes very commonly met with in the Democratic newspapers "of the period." The Albany Democrat and Salem Press of Saturday last, have articles written in the cheerful strain prompted by such suggestions as the above. The country, in the opinion of those acute and observing journals, is on the down grade to perdition, and all because the Democratic party has been defeated and its counsels rejected by a wicked and gainsaying people.

When a political party is hopelessly beaten, when its dissolution is impending; when all its ideas have become effete, and when it loses its last hope of a future, it is extremely apt to give expression to its woe in tirades like these. Such utterances mark as clearly as anything can a party's hopeless condition. The country is going to ruin, these people would have us believe, because the Democratic party cannot control it. Their mournful exclamation is—

> All is but toys; renown and grace is dead,
> The wine of life is drawn and the mere lees
> Is left the vault to brag of.

But maugre all these gloomy reflections and mournful prophecies, the opinion is very prevalent that there is quite as much public virtue in the country as there was some years ago when the Democratic party had control; when a Democratic Administration conspired with rebels to divide and destroy the nation, and when the country was delivered by a Democratic President and his Secretaries, with the applause of the Democratic party, into the power of a gigantic armed rebellion.

Small Notes.

Pacific railroad bonds to the amount of $1,920,000 were issued during the month of February.

While American women are holding meetings to demand the suffrage the women of Germany, it is announced, are to have a Convention at Stuttgart to discuss the best method of managing babies. Wonder whether there will be any delegates from America?

An enthusiastic individual writing from Louisville, Kentucky, gives it as his cool and deliberate judgment, that in consequence of the numbers preparing to visit California this summer, there will scarcely be camping ground for them in San Francisco and Oakland. If they are wise they will come to Oregon, where there is plenty of room, and where they can live out of doors as well as in houses, if they so desire.

The Herald the other day had an article entitled "The Webfoot Crucible," which contained a rather vicious assault upon politicians imported into this State from California. It remarked that "the importation of California politicians into Oregon has always been anything else but a success," and went on at considerable length in this style, all of which was "anything else" than flattering to Stout and other politicians "imported into Oregon from California."

In a speech delivered February 22d, by Senator Conkling, on the repeal of the tenure of office act and the causes which induced Congress to enact that law, Conkling asserted, on authority of "a Senator whose duties turned his studies toward such knowledge," that "$100,000,000 would not reimburse the Treasury for losses arising from the wanton exercise of the appointing power by Andrew Johnson." This is a portion of what A. Johnson cost us.

Rumors have filled the air that President Grant was going to recognize the insurgent government of Cuba, but we have it now by the dispatches that Secretary Fish declines to hold any intercourse with the agents of the insurrectionary movement. This should show that the President believes that we ought to mind our own business and let other people's affairs alone. But Banks and a few others in Congress seem to be "pegging away" at Cuban affairs in their usual pragmatic style. Most of our people think we have enough to attend to at home just now.

Hon. Mullins, late M. C. from Tennessee, is an orator almost equal to Andy Johnson. His official life closed with the last Congress. His oratory is far ahead of Dickens' Pogram. One of his last roars in Congress was in favor of a bill to pay for certain mules. Here is a specimen: "I will stand here, Mr. Speaker, till the Angel Gabriel snaps his last gun. I will stand here till the pis-ants carry me out piece-meal through the key-hole. I will stand here till the Archangel fires the crack of doom amid the wreck of matter and a crush of boards, and Asia tumbles into Africa, leaving the polar star to gleam like the eye of hell void of collateral chaos."

Some of the Copperhead papers have been daft ever since the rebels were overwhelmed in the last ditch. For instance, the San Francisco Examiner, in speaking of the report that a movement for annexation to the United States, had been initiated in Nova Scotia, pronounces it "inconceivable that any sensible men would desire to cut loose from a Government like England, and unite their fortunes to the mob which now goes by the name of the United States." And while talking thus, the crazy old thing declares that in this country there is no liberty of speech. By the way, inquires the Sacramento Bee, why don't the Examiner people pick up their traps and leave the country they so intensely hate for the one they so much adore?

A Northern Coast Railway.

Under this head the Sacramento Union has the following:

Oregon is alive to the importance of a railway system. She wants population east of the Cascade range, and she wants an outlet better than is afforded by the narrow, shallow and crooked Wallamet, for the products of her rich valleys lying immediately east of the Coast range. The project of a railway passing from Portland south through the whole length of the Wallamet valley, and passing the Cascade range at the point of intersection with the Calapooyas, is in course of realization. That road is sure to be built. Its ultimate destination is, of course, to the line of the Central Pacific, somewhere in the State of Nevada, or to a connection with the Union Pacific, should that road be extended westward to this State. Meantime, there is also talk of another branch of the Oregon system proper, extending across the Calapooya mountains, into and through Umpqua and Rogue river valleys, and so ultimately to the valley of the Sacramento, and this city. But there is another route by which Oregon may find a shorter, and possibly a speedier passage to San Francisco bay. When the Humboldt bay road is completed to Eureka and the Wallamet valley road extended to Jacksonville, there will remain an interval of hardly one hundred miles of road to build to make the chain of railway complete between San Francisco bay and Portland. It is true, this hundred miles is the roughest part of the coast region, but it would probably not cost more to railroad it than an equal distance through the Alleghany mountains. The connection made, it would afford the directest possible communication between San Francisco and Portland—the whole distance being but one day's travel. The line would penetrate the entire agricultural system of Oregon, with a good part of its best timbered country, and from Eureka to Petaluma, about the very best farming country in this State. It is a question if this coast route does not yet first succeed in connecting by railway the two great Pacific States. The opening of the Pacific railway will bring hither much capital from the East and many shrewd railway man, and we are much in error if this route does not strike some of them as among the most profitable and feasible of enterprises contemplated for the development of this coast.

The Pennsylvania Cabinet Officer.

We present the following from the Philadelphia Press of the 6th inst. as the first satisfactory account we have seen of the new Secretary of the Navy:

Adolphus E. Borie, of the firm of McKean, Borie & Co., on Dock street, is a native of Philadelphia, of French extraction. At the age of fifteen he graduated at the University of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia, and at twenty-four went to Paris, where he remained several years and completed his education. On returning to this country he engaged in the China tea and silk trade, importing for the Cuban and Mexican as well as the Philadelphia trade. Mr. Borie is not now in active business, except in managing a very large fortune amassed in thirty years of mercantile life. He was formerly an old line Whig, and always an uncompromising opponent of the Democratic party. He was one of the founders of the Union League, and is now its Vice President. During the war he supported the Government with money and influence. He has never held a public office nor attended political meetings outside of the Union League. He was one of the contributors to General Grant's house on Chestnut street, above Twentieth. He was introduced to Gen. Grant by General Meade, since the war. The acquaintance soon ripened into a warm friendship. In the winter he resides in the city, and in the summer occupies a country seat at Forrestdale, on the Delaware. A few days since, in conversation relative to his appointment, he said he did not expect it, and he would not accept any office. The fact of his appointment may change his decision. A weighty influence will be brought to bear on him to accept. As Secretary of the Navy he can make a great naval depot at League Island, and this interests the Philadelphians, as a matter of course.

Claflin's sales last year were $43,000,000 and Stewart's $30,000,000.

United States District Court—District of Oregon

In the matter of Robert A. Sutherland, an Involuntary Bankrupt.

On January 11, 1868, Robert A. Sutherland was adjudged a bankrupt in this court upon the petition of certain of his creditors. On December 19, 1868, said bankrupt filed his petition for discharge. Upon the filing of the petition an order was made that the creditors show cause against the same, on January 23, 1869. On that day no one appearing, for or against the petition, it was continued under the rule of the court until the following Saturday, and so on until March 20, when the attorneys for the petitioning creditors filed a motion, that the bankrupt's application for a final discharge be decided upon the 23d day, that day being fixed for the hearing of such application has elapsed, and that the oath required by law there to have been filed.

By consent of counsel for the bankrupt and the attorneys for the petitioning creditors, the matter was set for hearing on March 20, at which time it was argued by counsel.

This subject is regulated by sections 29 and 1 of the Act and General Order XXIV. Upon the day fixed to show cause, a creditor intending to oppose the application for discharge, must enter his appearance in opposition thereto. His appearance is entered with the clerk as provided in General Order III. Until such appearance is entered the creditor has no standing in court in the petition for discharge, and therefore cannot be heard in opposition thereto. Where there is no opposing party the petition of the bankrupt for final discharge may and will be continued from time to time to suit the convenience of the bankrupt. When an appearance has been entered by any creditor against the discharge, the proceedings upon the petition are no longer under the exclusive control of the bankrupt, but the opposing creditor cannot then move to dismiss the petition or that its prayer be denied, because the bankrupt is or supposed to be dilatory in bringing the matter on for hearing. The remedy of the creditor is to move the court to set down the matter for hearing upon the petition and his objections thereto, if any be filed.

This motion therefore must be denied. The parties making it have no standing in court, as to the petition, although they were the petitioner in the proceeding on which Sutherland was adjudged a bankrupt. Nor is it correct to say, as in this motion, that the day fixed for hearing the bankrupt petition has elapsed. In fact no day has yet been fixed or appointed for the hearing of the application for discharge. True a day has been appointed (January 22, 1869) for the creditors to "show cause why a discharge should not be granted to the bankrupt."—(Sec. 29). This day the creditors have allowed to pass by without entering their appearance or filing grounds of opposition to the application for discharge. Under General Order XXIV, the application could not be set down for hearing, except by consent of the creditors, until the day appointed for showing cause had elapsed, because the creditor has the whole of that day to enter his appearance in opposition thereto. If an appearance is entered then the party entering it has ten days thereafter to file his objections to the granting of the discharge. After this time has elapsed, the court may make an order upon the application of either party, setting the petition down for hearing or trial as the case may be.

The second ground of the motion seems to assume that the bankrupt must make and file his final oath as required by section 19, before the day appointed for the hearing of the petition or even showing cause against it. Indeed, upon the argument, counsel for the motion treated this oath as a quasi pleading or a part of the allegations against which the creditors are cited to show cause. But this oath is merely an item of indispensable evidence, without which the bankrupt is not entitled to his discharge. But it is sufficient if such oath be produced and filed on the hearing. This is apparent from the language of the act:—"and before any discharge is granted, the bankrupt shall take and subscribe an oath to the effect that he has not done etc. or thing specified in this act as ground for withholding such discharge, or as invalidating such discharge if granted."—(Sec. 29.) The motion is denied. DEADY J.

FECHHEIMER for motion.

A J's Pardons at a Discount.

A New York dispatch of March 6th gives the following:

Marshal Murray to day received from Washington a pardon from President Johnson for Jacob and Moses Depuy, father and son, who were convicted at the January term of the United States Circuit Court of this District of rescuing seized whisky from a revenue officer. Jacob was sentenced to three years' imprisonment at hard labor and fined $600, and Moses was sentenced to one year's imprisonment and fined $200. The pardon is granted on the ground that the Depuys had given valuable information in regard to revenue frauds, and been promised protection. The pardons are conditional upon the payment of the fines imposed. Shortly after the pardon was received by Deputy Marshal Thompson, the District Attorney sent a telegram to Commissioner Rollins informing him of the fact, and the Commissioner had a brief interview with President Grant, the result of which is embodied in the following dispatch, received at the District Attorney's office at three o'clock:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., March 5, 1869.

"SAMUEL G. COURTNEY, ESQ.:—I have just seen the President, who instantly ordered the withholding of the pardon of the Depuys. I have sent to the State Department to see if the pardons were issued. If the Marshal has them, tell him to withhold them. The President is in earnest about this. E. A. ROLLINS,
"Commissioner."

At half past two o'clock Assistant District Attorney Bell had a fresh warrant made out for the arrest of the Depuys, on an indictment found against them by the grand jury, charging them with having obstructed the officers of Marshal Murray's department in the exercise of their duty when they attempted, it is said, to fire on the latter. A bench warrant was promptly issued and is in the hands of an officer for execution. Jacob Depuy is to pay a fine of six hundred dollars before he can be liberated. On the first charge they will be re-arrested. Later in the day the following dispatch was received at the Marshal's office:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., March 6, 1869.

"ROBERT MURRAY, U. S. MARSHAL, N. Y.:—If Jacob and Moses Depuy have not been released you will regard their pardon as cancelled, and return the same at once to this Department.
[Signed] "E B WASHBURNE,
"Secretary of State."

In compliance, Deputy Marshal Thompson sent the pardon of the Dupuys back to the State Department. What further action will be taken in the matter is not at present known.

FINANCIAL.—A New York paper of March 6th states the increase of gold customs receipts during the present fiscal year, of which eight months have elapsed, is about $10,500,000 over the amount for the corresponding time in the last fiscal year, and the aggregate amount for the entire current year will undoubtedly be $175,000,000, and is even set as high as $180,000,000. Last year they were only $164,192,000, and as the interest on the gold-bearing debt for the current year is only $124,255,092, there will remain from the customs receipts about $56,000,000 in gold, to be applied to the reduction of the principal of the debt. The receipts of the customs at the New York office of the United States treasury, from July 1, 1868, to February 28, were $80,725,627, and the gold interest paid $68,158,846, against $73,631,248, and $71,106,666 for the corresponding months during the previous year. The exports of specie from New York since July, 1868, have been $28,184,46 against $38,562,730 for the corresponding time in 1867 and '68. These figures are very encouraging.

THE MISERIES OF A RICH MAN.—The New York correspondent of the Rochester Democrat is responsible for the following:

Alexander T. Stewart clears one thousand dollars per day, Sundays excepted, all the year round. Cornelius Vanderbilt pleads guilty to twice that sum, while Wm. B. Astor rates his income at four thousand three hundred and thirty dollars per diem. Sleeping or waking, the latter gentleman finds a three dollar bill dropping into his hat every minute of the twenty four hours. He cannot sit down to talk with his physician without having a little more wealth, if not health, he cannot unburden his mind without feeling his pockets increasing in his pocket and he cannot walk his office, however the weather may be, without meeting a shower of money. At every such cash stance at him in the most impudent manner. Banks fling their dividends at his head, ruthless financiers beat him with coupons unpitying and soulless corporations dump their lucre at his door, and contemptuous bill stickers plaster his door with greenbacks. One might wonder what that fellow has done to merit this treatment, and the only charge that can be brought is that he is a rich man's son, and therefore must suffer.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Washington News.

The Herald's Washington dispatch records General Sherman's order directing staff officers and heads of army bureaus to report to him instead of the Secretary of War. It was made by the President at the solicitation of Secretary Rawlings, who said he would rather resign than serve only as an ornamental head figure. It was found that the system instituted by Sherman did not work harmoniously.

The accredited agents of the Cuban insurgents are earnestly laboring with Congress to secure some recognition. It is announced that an office will be opened here this week for the sale of Cuban insurrectionary bonds. Senor Lemans is perfecting arrangements to that end.

The Odd Fellows intend to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of the order on this continent, on April 26th. Rev E H Chapin and others will deliver addresses at Steinway's hall.

CHICAGO, March 27.—The Tribune's Washington special says political circles are greatly excited over an editorial with accompanying testimony published in the New York Evening Post of Saturday, pointedly charging that Senator Fenton received $20,000 for signing the Erie railroad bill. It is thought the Senator cannot avoid investigating the matter. The anti-Fentonists declare that if he is found guilty they will have him expelled.

Gen Raasloff, the Danish Minister of War, who has been here looking after the St. Thomas treaty, has left for Europe. It is not known whether the Senate will take any action on the treaty this session.

The commission between Spain, Peru, Chili and Bolivia will probably not meet till June, when Peru expects to have a full ministry at Washington.

The same special thinks the chances of the total repeal of the tenure of office law better than at any previous stage in the controversy.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The Herald's Havana special says the Spanish war steamer Montezuma arrived with Coddington, U. S. consular agent at Bibara, in irons. Coddington is suspected of complicity in the insurgent movements.

Richard Gibbs, U. S. consular agent at Nervitas, leaves for New York to-day.

Ex Mayor James Harper, who was injured Thursday by being thrown from his carriage, died Saturday night, aged seventy-four.

A heavy easterly rain storm prevails.

A man named Spencer, a theater manager, was thrown from a carriage in Central Park yesterday and had both legs broken. A lady was thrown from the same carriage and is thought fatally injured.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company have completed 1,076 miles west of Omaha, leaving a gap of only 126 miles between the ends of the two tracks.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—At 5 o'clock this morning a Mexican woman named Francis Opoza, recently discharged from the insane asylum, threw herself from an upper window in the International Hotel. She fell a distance of sixty-five feet, and was horribly bruised and mangled. She lived for half an hour afterwards.

Mr. Chas. McConnell, who was run over while attempting to jump from a car on Howard street, a week ago Sunday evening, and had both legs crushed, died yesterday.

The dead body of Carl Holsch was found at Calvary Cemetery yesterday morning, with a bullet-hole in the chest. Letters were found upon his person announcing his intention to commit suicide. Distress and inability to procure employment, were the reasons which impelled him to commit suicide.

The safe of Wellman, Peck & Co., was robbed of $400 in coin yesterday. The burglar was captured almost immediately afterwards, and gave his name as Geo. A. Barnett. He is respectably connected in New York. His circumstances indicate that he was partially insane from the effects of liquor, or that he was afflicted with kleptomania.

A residence on Brannan street, between Third and Fourth streets, occupied by one Donovan, was partially burned this morning. Supposed to be a case of incendiarism.

Last night a Mexican named J. Buraxnor quarrelled with a negress named Mrs. Kipg, and bit her lip off.

A California whale, twenty-five feet long, was captured near the Cliff House yesterday.

A. H. Houston, the railroad contractor, died at Honolulu recently from bronchial consumption. His remains were brought up on the Idaho, which arrived last evening.

FROM THE NORTH.

VICTORIA, March 29.—The Carriboo Sentinel says the first strike of the season has been made on Conklin Gulch in a claim known as the Indian Queen, where the miners got a good prospect. It is supposed an old channel has been struck, and if this supposition be correct a new and extensive gold field has been discovered.

A miner named Jesse Pierce was killed at Mosquito Gulch on the 10th inst. by a man named Phillips. The murderer has been committed to jail to await his trial.

NEVADA.

VIRGINIA, March 29.—A brisk snow storm set in at 3 P. M. The weather is so mild that it melts as fast as it comes down.

The man found dead in his room Saturday, was Tuile, not Jewett, as first reported.

The bullion shipment of Sunday evening amounted to $46,899 07. Wells, Fargo & Co. had $29,464 35, and the Pacific Union Co. $17,434 72.

It is reported on good authority that very rich gold bearing rock was struck in the Sierra Nevada mine this P. M. The extent of the rich streak is unknown.

DRUNK.—Young man, did you ever stop to think how terrible that word sounds? Did you ever think what misery and woe you brought upon your friends when you degraded your manhood by getting drunk? Oh, it is a fearful thing to trample under foot the high claims that God and man have upon you. Drunk! How it rings in the ear of the loving wife! How it makes the heart of a fond mother bleed! How it crushes out the hopes of a doting father, and brings reproach and shame upon loving sisters. Drunk! See him as he leans against some friendly house. He stands ready to fall into the open jaws of hell, unconscious of his approaching fate. The wife with tearful eyes and aching heart, sits at the window to hear her husband's footsteps, but alas, they come not! He is drunk! The husband, the parent is drunk, spending his time and money, when he should be at home enjoying the pleasures and comfort of the family circle. Drunk! Spending the means of support for liquor, while his family is starving for bread, his children suffering for clothing. Drunk! His reputation is gone! His friends, one by one, are reluctantly leaving him to his miserable fate. He goes down to his grave "unhonored and untouched." Drunk!

Dr. Graham has probably verified the conjecture of scientists, that hydrogen is a metal. The extraction of a large amount of occluded hydrogen from the Lenarto meteorite, which astonished the world a year or so ago,—as our readers will remember, was a step towards this splendid conclusion. Professor Graham has since experimented largely in this direction, and, as we have seen from time to time, has succeeded in artificially occluding this gas in iron, platinum, palladium, and other metals. In other words, he has, by causing any one of these metals to absorb hydrogen, as melted silver absorbs oxygen, or as water absorbs ammonia, produced an alloy of that metal with hydrogen, which alloy is less dense, but more magnetic, than the aforesaid metal alone. Palladium occludes, or "shuts up," or absorbs, eight or nine hundred times it volume of hydrogen. This gas, so volatile in its character, is thus effectually imprisoned, so to speak, as to its particles between the particles of the denser metal, and the resulting compound metal, partakes, like other alloys, of the characters of both its constituents. Professor Graham has by calculation, found the density of hydrogen to be 1 951.

Wilson's "Presbyterian Historical Almanac for 1869," gives the following as the number of churches of different denominations in this country: Methodist, 19,883; Baptist, 12,150; Presbyterian, 6,406; Roman Catholic, 2,550; Congregationalist, 1,234; Episcopalian, 2,145; Lutheran, 2,128; Christian, 2,068; Friends, 726; German Reformed, 955; Universalist, 664; Dutch Reformed, 440; Unitarian, 264; Jewish, 77; Adventist, 70; Swedenborgian, 58; Moravian, 49; Spiritualist, 17; Shaker, 12; Minor sects, 26.

It has been observed throughout Central and Western Europe, where criminal statistics are classified according to the religion of the prisoners, that there are proportionately less Jews convicted than members of any other denomination.

THE NEW ADMINISTRATION has filled the various offices; so have HARMAN BROS., filled their spacious store, corner Front and Morrison Streets, with the Latest Styles of Merchant Tailoring Goods, consisting of French Cassimeres, Beaver, Broadcloths and all kinds of Vestings, also a fine Stock of Ready Made Clothing, and Gents' Furnishing Goods, which they are enabled to sell lower than any other House in their city, as their Mr Isaac Barman is constantly in the San Francisco market, purchasing at the most advantageous prices, of which their customers always have the benefit. Go and see them—no trouble to show goods.

IN NOC SIGNO VINCES.—Quick sales and small profits. 'By this sign we shall conquer" all opposition at THE OREGON DISPENSARY. The same inscription might be properly affixed to another sign which is the symbol of hundreds of successful battles with the BODILY AILMENTS of our citizens at less costs than formerly. All purchases Drugs, Medicines, Perfumeries, etc., etc., at the CHEAPEST and BEST Drug Store in Portland, and receive Medical and Surgical attention gratuitously.
LOWERA & KALLENBERG,
DR. J. A. CHAPMAN, 73 Firs. street.
Consulting Physician and Surgeon.

GREAT EXCITEMENT.—The constant buzz of activity at KOHN & FISHEL'S yesterday, was occasioned by the receipt and opening of a very large and complete stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods—Spring Styles—purchased and sent up from San Francisco, by Mr. Fishel, who is acknowledged to be one of the best judges of that line of goods, doing business in this city. Call and see the Spring Styles.
